

Rule 354

The official court reporter must attend the sessions of the court where the reporter is assigned when required by the judge or the chief judge. The official court reporter will take verbatim notes of the proceedings tried before the court as the judge directs. Such notes must be taken on a machine with read-back capability. The judge will enter the name of the court reporter taking verbatim notes of any proceeding on the appearance/trial docket.

[History: Am. effective May 11, 1995; Am. effective January 3, 2006; Am. effective July 1, 2020.]