

Rule 360

A district court may provide for the electronic sound recording of court proceedings by use of equipment that meets specifications approved by the Supreme Court.

[History: Am. effective July 1, 2020.]