

Rule 362

Written transcripts of electronic recordings will be prepared by court personnel under the direction of the clerk of the district court. The person making the transcript must certify under seal of the court that the transcript is a correct transcript of the specified recorded proceedings. Upon request of counsel-of-record in a case, the clerk of the district court will make arrangements for counsel to review the electronic recordings of that case. The clerk may correct a transcript of recorded proceedings upon stipulation by counsel or upon order of the court.

[History: Am. effective January 3, 2006; Am. effective July 1, 2020.]