

Rule 704

ATTORNEY ADMISSIONS OFFICE

- (a) Generally. The Supreme Court designates an Attorney Admissions office in the Office of Judicial Administration.
- (b) Duties. The Attorney Admissions office has the following duties:
  - (1) receiving and processing applications for admission to the Kansas bar;
  - (2) administering the bar examination;
  - (3) maintaining records involving application and admission to the bar;
  - (4) designating a secretary to record the minutes of the Board of Law Examiners' meetings;
  - (5) reporting to and assisting the Board regarding test administration, accommodations, and results;
  - (6) serving as a liaison between the public, the Board, and the Supreme Court on all matters involving admission to the bar; and
  - (7) assisting with other matters as directed by the Board or the Supreme Court.

[History: New rule adopted effective July 1, 2022.]