Minutes

1	Welcome
2	Approve Minutes from 5/26/2023 meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Minutes approved</li> </ul>
3	Equal Parenting Time – new proposed language – Sherri Loveland <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• S. Loveland presented the new proposed language for the equal parenting time formula; both parents are to keep clothes in each home – parents are doing this and don’t want kids to haul clothes back and forth when sharing time</li> <li>• This proposal is more of a parenting time adjustment than the current formula; there was no “magic” to the proposed percentage</li> <li>• The subcommittee reviewed the chart from the economist and the average for direct expenses without clothing is about 31%; discussed sample worksheets and where to make the adjustment on the child support worksheet. This new proposal fixes the negative number issue.</li> <li>• Committee approved proposed language</li> </ul>
4	Appendix review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Committee reviewed appendices and determined no further edits are needed.</li> </ul>
5	Supplemental material review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Committee will review supplemental materials at its next meeting</li> </ul>
6	Plan for submission to the Supreme Court <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A. Raymond reviewed process for submitting the guidelines to the Supreme Court for review</li> <li>• The committee will submit the draft revisions (along with appendices and supplemental materials) and a report.</li> <li>• Part of the submission will include a request to post the proposed revisions for public comment. Judge K. O’Grady suggested 30 days is an appropriate time period; sometimes more than that doesn’t actually yield more comments</li> <li>• If the Supreme Court approves posting the guidelines for public comment, that is likely to occur during September. Any changes based on comments will likely be submitted to the Supreme Court in October for final approval.</li> </ul>
7	Other items for discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• July meeting – Judge K. O’Grady asked that members attend in person in July if possible. This is the last big review before the guidelines are submitted to the Supreme Court.</li> </ul>

- Letter from Brian Mull – committee reviewed letter; A. Raymond and Judge K. O’Grady will draft response letter
